This report and recommendation is submitted to the Honorable Terry J. Hatter, United States District Judge, pursuant to the provisions of 28 U.S.C. § 636 and General Order 194 of the United States District Court for the Central District of California. For the reasons discussed below, it is recommended that the petition be denied and dismissed with prejudice.

SUMMARY OF PROCEEDINGS

On March 4, 1997, petitioner filed a first amended petition for writ of habeas corpus. On April 7, 1997, respondents filed a return.

1 On April 18, 1997, respondents filed a supplemental return, pursuant 2 to this court's order. On May 16, 1997, petitioner filed a traverse.

3 BACKGROUND

4 Petitioner was found guilty by a jury in Los Angeles County
5 Superior Court of murder, multiple robberies and attempted robberies, 6 and gun use allegations in connection with the robbery of a restaurant
7 and the killing of a victim under California law on December 19, 1988.
8 The court found true a prior serious felony. (CT 641-64; Return, exh.
9 D at 130).¹ Petitioner was sentenced to a total term in state prison 10 of 23 years plus 27 years to life without the possibility of parole.
11 The sentence included enhancements. (CT 746-55; Return, exh. D at 12 130-31).

13 Petitioner thereafter filed an appeal with the California Court 14 of Appeal. (Return, exh. A; CT 756-58). On August 29, 1990, the 15 California Court of Appeal affirmed petitioner's conviction, but 16 modified his sentence as to the murder count to reflect a term of life 17 with the possibility of parole, rather than life without the 18 possibility of parole, and stayed the sentence enhancements imposed on 19 certain counts. (Return, exh. D; Petition, exh. B).

20 Petitioner next filed a petition for review to the California
21 Supreme Court, raising the following two grounds: (1) a severance 22 should be granted when a co-defendant's confession does not expressly 23 incriminate the defendant but does so when linked with other evidence 24 in the case; and, (2) insufficient evidence to support petitioner's 25 conviction. The California Supreme Court denied the petition on

1 November 14, 1990, without citation to authority. (Return, exh. E; 2 Petition, exh. C).

3 On February 5, 1991, petitioner filed a petition for writ of 4 habeas corpus with this court, case number CV 91-0660-TJH, after 5 transfer by the United States District Court for the Northern District
6 of California, raising four grounds: (1) the trial court erred by not 7 severing petitioner's trial from that of the co-defendant; (2) there 8 is insufficient evidence in support of the conviction; (3) the 9 prosecutor improperly commented on petitioner's failure to testify in 10 his closing argument; and, (4) the trial court erroneously sentenced 11 petitioner for multiple use of a firearm. The petition was denied and 12 dismissed without prejudice on June 11, 1991, for failure to exhaust
13 state remedies with respect to his third and fourth grounds. (Return, 14 exh. F).

15 On March 17, 1992, petitioner filed a petition for writ of habeas 16 corpus with the California Supreme Court, raising the following 17 claims: (1) the trial court erred in denying petitioner's motion for a 18 severance of his case from that of the co-defendant; (2) petitioner 19 was denied his constitutional right to confrontation of the principal 20 witness against him; (3) there was insufficient evidence to convict 21 the petitioner; (4) intentional suppression of material evidence 22 favorable to the petitioner by the prosecution violated his due 23 process rights; (5) the prosecutor engaged in misconduct in final 24 argument; and, (6) the trial court erred in sentencing petitioner to 25 more than one use of firearm enhancement pursuant to California Penal 26 Code § 12022.5. (Return, exh. G). On May 27, 1992, the California
27 Supreme Court denied the petition with citations to In re Waltreus, 62 28

1 Cal.2d 218, cert. denied 382 U.S. 853 (1965) (Waltreus), and In re
2 Lindley, 29 Cal.2d 709, 723 (1947) (Lindley). (Return, exh. G; 3 Petition, exh. E).

4 Petitioner thereafter apparently filed a petition for writ of 5 habeas corpus with the California Court of Appeal on June 26, 1992, 6 which was denied on July 26, 1992, for raising by petition for writ of 7 habeas corpus a contention previously rejected on appeal. (Petition, 8 exh. F).

9 On August 11, 1992, petitioner filed a second petition for writ 10 of habeas corpus with the California Supreme Court, alleging that the 11 court erred in sentencing petitioner to more than one use of a firearm 12 enhancement pursuant to California Penal Code § 12022.5. (Return, 13 exh. H). On October 28, 1992, the California Supreme Court denied the 14 petition with a citation to Waltreus. (Return, exh. H at 213; 15 Petition, exh. G).

16 On February 23, 1993, petitioner filed another petition for writ
17 of habeas corpus in federal court, case number CV 93-1048-TJH, raising 18 three grounds for relief: (1) petitioner was denied his rights to 19 confrontation by introduction of the co-defendant's extrajudicial 20 statement; (2) the prosecutor engaged in misconduct in his argument; 21 and, (3) the evidence was insufficient because it was not credible and 22 was based on testimony of a witness who lied to the police. On June 23 2, 1993, the court denied and dismissed the petition without prejudice
24 for failure to exhaust state remedies. (Return, exh. I).

25 Petitioner thereafter apparently filed a third petition for writ
26 of habeas corpus with the California Supreme Court, raising three 27 grounds: (1) petitioner's fundamental rights were violated in the 28

1 denial of his right to confrontation; (2) the prosecutor engaged in 2 misconduct in argument; and, (3) there is not sufficient evidence to 3 convict petitioner. (Petition at 5(a)). The petition was denied on 4 March 30, 1995, with citations to Waltreus and Lindley. (Petition, 5 exh. I).²

6 This first amended petition follows.

7 FACTS

8 At approximately 10:00 p.m. on November 5, 1987, petitioner and 9 two armed men, wearing gloves and halloween-type masks, entered the 10 bar at Felipe's Restaurant in Downey, California, and announced in 11 part: "this is a holdup". (RT 72-76, 87, 105-08; Return, exh. D at 12 131). The men asked for and took wallets from numerous people in the 13 bar. (RT 76-77, 108, 203-04; Return, exh. D at 131).

14 One of the men entered the kitchen with a pellet gun, and told 15 everyone to lie down. (RT 432; Return, exh. D at 131). The kitchen
16 employees did not cooperate, and one employee was shot with pellets 17 after approaching the armed man. (RT 432; Return, exh. D at 131).
18 The employee thereafter went after the armed man, running out of the 19 kitchen with a two-by-four piece of wood and direction of the bar.
20 (RT 78-81, 175-76, 189; Return, exh. D at 131). A witness saw the 21 employee and one of the armed men scuffling near the front door, heard 22 shots fired, and heard a car start and then pull away. (RT 108-11; 23 Return, exh. D at 132). Another witness who lived in a nearby
24 apartment had heard gunshots, looked out his window, and saw a green 25 or gold colored Plymouth driving out of the restaurant parking lot, 26 with the same employee chasing and beating on the car with a stick.

27 _____
28 ² Respondents failed to provide the court with these documents.

1 detective, Ibanez identified the black corduroy hat and halloween-type 2 mask as what he had been wearing during the robbery. (RT 285-87, 3 291). Ibanez also stated he had went into the kitchen at the 4 restaurant, ordered the employees to get down, and had fired his 5 pellet gun more than once at one employee who tried to run out of the 6 kitchen. (RT 288).

7 It was also demonstrated by testimony at trial that at 8 approximately 7:30 p.m. on November 5, 1987, two and one-half hours 9 before the crimes, petitioner had picked up Ibanez in the car which 10 was used in the robbery. (Return, exh. D at 133).

11 PETITIONER'S CONTENTIONS

12 Petitioner raises the following grounds in his first amended 13 petition:

14 1. Petitioner's fundamental constitutional rights have been 15 violated in the denial of his right to confrontation with respect to a 16 post-arrest, extrajudicial statement made by a co-defendant;

17 2. There was insufficient evidence to convict the petitioner; 18 and,

19 3. The prosecutor engaged in misconduct in argument, in 20 violation of Griffin v. California, 380 U.S. 609 (1965) (Griffin).

21 STANDARD OF REVIEW

22 An application for a writ of habeas corpus on behalf of a person 23 in custody pursuant to a state court judgment shall not be granted

25 court proceedings unless the adjudication of the claim either: (1) 26 resulted in a decision that was contrary to, or involved an 27 unreasonable application of, clearly established federal law, as

4 court issue an order: (1) approving and adopting this report and 5 recommendation; and, (2) directing that judgment be entered denying
